

merits of Mr. Baker's suggestion. The Allen committee bill went to the table temporarily.

Mr. Lindsay offered an amendment to the tariff resolution of Mr. Carter directing the finance committee to report back a repeal of the one-eight differential duty on sugar.

Mr. Carter's Speech.

Mr. Carter then took the floor for the speech which had been anticipated with keen interest. He spoke with great earnestness and with a deliberateness which emphasized every word. His statement at the outset that he had "no apologies to offer" was given with explosive force. He referred to the Senate's action on Feb. 13, when the motion of Mr. Carter's tariff bill was defeated. He said that for two hours before the motion to consider the tariff bill was made, he, acting upon the suggestion of a member of the finance committee, was endeavoring to bring about a conference which might result in a satisfactory adjustment of the differences on the Republican side of the chamber. The motion of Mr. Morrill was unexpected, and he, with other Republicans, voted no, not under the circumstances, but because he would cast a similar vote. The position indicated that he would not take the matter at that time. He said he would say no more, were it not for the fact that he had been asked to do so by his party had been made by many Republican papers in the East. Four members of the party, including Mr. Carter, were mentioned as having been present. MASSACRES RENEWED

TURKS AGAIN KILLING OFF CHRISTIANS BY WHOLESALE.

150 Armenians Put to Death for Refusing to Embrace Islamism—Efforts in Mrs. Maybrick's Behalf.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The Daily News will tomorrow publish a dispatch from Constantinople which says that it is reported that on Feb. 14, the first day of the Ramadan festival, the Turks surrounded the Armenian quarter in Marsovan and ordered the Armenians to accept Islamism. Five hundred of them agreed to do so, but 150 recalcitrants were killed. All news of massacres in Asia Minor are kept dark, the Daily News's correspondent says, for fear they will impel Russia to occupy Armenia.

The Chronicle has a dispatch from Constantinople which says that a fresh series of massacres is reported in the Sivas and Harpoot districts.

The Standard's Constantinople correspondent telegraphs that two of the narrowest streets through which the Sultan will pass on Feb. 28, on the occasion of his visit to Constantinople proper, the purpose of kissing the prophet's mantle, are being dug up by order of the authorities. It being thought that the Sultan will be obliged to pass over the bridge spanning the Golden Horn, from Galata to Constantinople, the names of persons suspected of being implicated in the plot to assassinate the Sultan are being arrested daily.

CASE OF MRS. MAYBRICK.

Efforts to Secure the Release of the Alleged Poisoner.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—Efforts have been renewed to secure the release of Mrs. Maybrick, the American woman charged with poisoning her husband, the late Wm. J. Maybrick, a life sentence in the Working prison, England, for the alleged murder of her husband, has revived general interest in this remarkable case. The story now given out is that Sir Matthew W. Ridley, the Home Secretary, who is now in London, is endeavoring to secure the release of the woman, who is now in the Working prison, England, for the alleged murder of her husband, has revived general interest in this remarkable case.

At the age of seventeen Miss Chandler, the daughter of the late Wm. J. Maybrick, a banker of Mobile, Ala., was married to James Maybrick, a Liverpool broker, forty-four years of age. The couple apparently lived happily together for the first three years. Two children, a boy and a girl, were born to them. April 27, 1889, Maybrick was taken ill and his wife nursed him tenderly until he died. Then she swooned and was unconscious for forty-eight hours. The doctor said death was from typhoid fever, but two brothers of Maybrick and some of his women acquaintances averred that Mrs. Maybrick had poisoned her husband. She was placed under arrest before she recovered from the shock of her husband's death, and was tried for the murder. She was found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment. The trial developed that Mrs. Maybrick had used a large quantity of arsenic, and that the arsenic was found in the liver and other parts of the body by a coroner's jury. Rejected by Parliament.

HOUSE OF COMMONS KILLS THE EVICTED TENANTS' BILL.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—Mr. J. A. Clancy, Parnell member for the North Dublin constituency, moved the second reading of the evicted tenants' bill in the House of Commons to-day, but his motion was rejected by a vote of 271 to 174. This measure is of a voluntary nature, not compulsory, and provides that a board of conciliation, consisting of three members, be appointed by Parliament and empowered to confirm existing agreements or to reinstate tenants by purchase or tenants under judicial rent. The number of evicted persons is few, and the matter, it is claimed, could be settled. Mr. John E. Redmond, Parnell member for Waterford, and Mr. John Dillon, Parnell member for East Mayo, supported Mr. Clancy's motion. Mr. J. A. Rentoul, O. C. Conservative member for East Devon, moved the rejection of the bill. He argued that the measure under discussion involved the principle that tenants evicted from their homes should be reinstated in their homes, and that the measure was a violation of the principle of the law of the land.

NOT A GOOD LOG-ROLLER.

One Reason Why John Hall Has No European Allies.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—G. J. Goschen, First Lord of the Admiralty, speaking at Lewes to-night, said that conciliation, negotiation and arbitration might be valuable, but woe to the nation lacking courage or means to back its opinion by its own resources. The new system of log-rolling and bartering for votes, he said, had displaced the old system of a balance of power between European nations. England was not clever at this game, he added, and the new system of log-rolling and bartering for votes, he said, had displaced the old system of a balance of power between European nations.
